OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

DEVOTIONAL READING - Quotes on Spiritual Discipline

How often do we hear about the discipline of the Christian life these days? How often do we talk about it? How often is it really to be found at the heart of our evangelical living? There was a time in the Christian church when this was at the very center, and it is, I profoundly believe, because of our neglect of this discipline that the church is in her present position. Indeed, I see no hope whatsoever of any true revival and reawakening until we return to it. – Martin Lloyd Jones

Godly character is not the result of good intentions, wishful thinking, some mystical “zap,” or even sheer Bible knowledge. It’s developed through the self-disciplined application of God’s Word at a very basic level, enabled and empowered by God’s Spirit. – John MacArthur

When I speak of “means,” I have in view Bible-reading, private prayer, regular attendance on public worship, regular hearing of God’s Word, and regular reception of the Lord’s Supper. I lay it down as a simple matter of fact, that no one who is careless about such things must ever expect to make much progress in sanctification. I can find no record of any eminent saint who ever neglected them. They are appointed channels through which the Holy Spirit conveys fresh supplies of grace to the soul, and strengthens the work which He has begun in the inward man. Let men call this legal doctrine if they please, but I will never shrink from declaring my belief that there are no “spiritual gains without pains”... Our God is a God who works by means, and He will never bless the soul of that man who pretends to be so high and spiritual that he can get on without them. – J.C. Ryle

We must remember that the methods of spiritual disciplines are a means to the end, not the end themselves. – Jerry Bridges

HACKATHON 13. We are halfway through Hack13! How is that, you ask? Well, we had to split between two Saturdays because some volunteers could only work yesterday, and others next Saturday. We helped one language group get a topical index in their Bible program. We worked with another to begin the process of updating their orthography. Some consonants and vowels are changing, depending on the form of the word, to match new government standards for the language. We worked to recover two other old translations to bring them up to modern technology. And one of our team worked on translation helps.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

- Too many hear without heeding, read without responding, confess without changing, profess without practicing, worship without witnessing, and seek without sharing.
- Leave tomorrow's troubles to tomorrow's strength, tomorrow's work to tomorrow's time, tomorrow's trial to tomorrow's grace, and all of it to tomorrow's God (Matt. 6:34).
- God mightily uses Christians who stay cool in a hot place, sweet in a sour place and little in a big place.
