OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Jansen Lorch is assistant pastor.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

DEVOTIONAL READING – Conversations with Myself Luke 12:16-34

There is “a time to keep silence, and a time to speak” (Ecclesiastes 3:7). Our thought conversations are important! “Don’t listen to yourself. Talk to yourself” is sound advice.

How we need to constantly align our mental conversations with God’s thoughts. The treasures in God’s Word should refute the debris arising from the spring of wickedness in our hearts. May we let God’s Word constantly cleanse that spring.

The rich fool discussed with himself how to store his plentiful harvest. “I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.”

He had a great plan. “But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?” (Luke 12:18-20). This parable illustrates that in leaving God out, we can easily persuade ourselves to do anything.

The Prodigal Son parable also reflects constructive self-talk. We can only imagine what he had been telling himself before choosing a helpful conversation. When “he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father’s have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger...I will arise and go to my father, and will say ...Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.” (Luke 15:17-19) He then arose and went to his father, his self-conversations having determined his actions.

May we ever encourage ourselves that we may encourage others. “Why art thou cast down, O my soul...hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise Him, who is the health of my countenance” (Psalm 42:11).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME. We are grateful to worship together, and want to extend a heartfelt welcome to you today. We are eager to share God’s Word and see His work in hearts and lives. Please also join us for Bible study at 6pm tonight as our Assistant Pastor Jansen Lorch ministers the Word.

GIVING THANKS FOR WEEK OF PRAYER. We had a blessed time praying together this week, thanks to all who made praying together a priority, let’s keep it up!

OPPORTUNITIES TO GATHER THIS WEEK

Tuesday: Ladies are invited to the Lorches’ home at 11am for a time of prayer and fellowship. See Kalee with any questions.

Wednesday: We offer dinner at 5:45 as a time for fellowship and to be a help to those who come from work. Our prayer/Bible study time starts at 6:30 on Wednesday.

Saturday: Men have men’s prayer starting at 8am, also with a time of devotion in the Word, right here at the church building.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- Little Lights Service. February 18 at 3:30 we are offering a special service for comfort and outreach, see fbcaa.org/lights for details. Note there is no evening service next week.
- Youth Service Activity at the church building on March 23rd. More details to come.
- Sunday March 10 is when daylight savings time begins.

REFRESHMENTS. We could use a little help with providing and serving finger food refreshments following the special service next week.

EASTER CHOIR STARTING PRACTICE NEXT WEEK. If you would be interested in singing with the choir for Easter, we’ll start meeting next week after the morning service! Easter is fairly early this year—March 31 (Easter can fall anywhere from March 22 to April 25).

ACCOUNTABILITY. Just a reminder to fill out a "goal sheet" and drop it into the offering plate today. On it, you would write your name, one or two spiritual goals for yourself in the next year, and one or two you would like to see the church as a whole work on. This is a great accountability tool so that we focus on spiritual growth.

BIBLE MEMORY VERSE FOR FEBRUARY. “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.” – 2 Corinthians 5:17-18
