OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

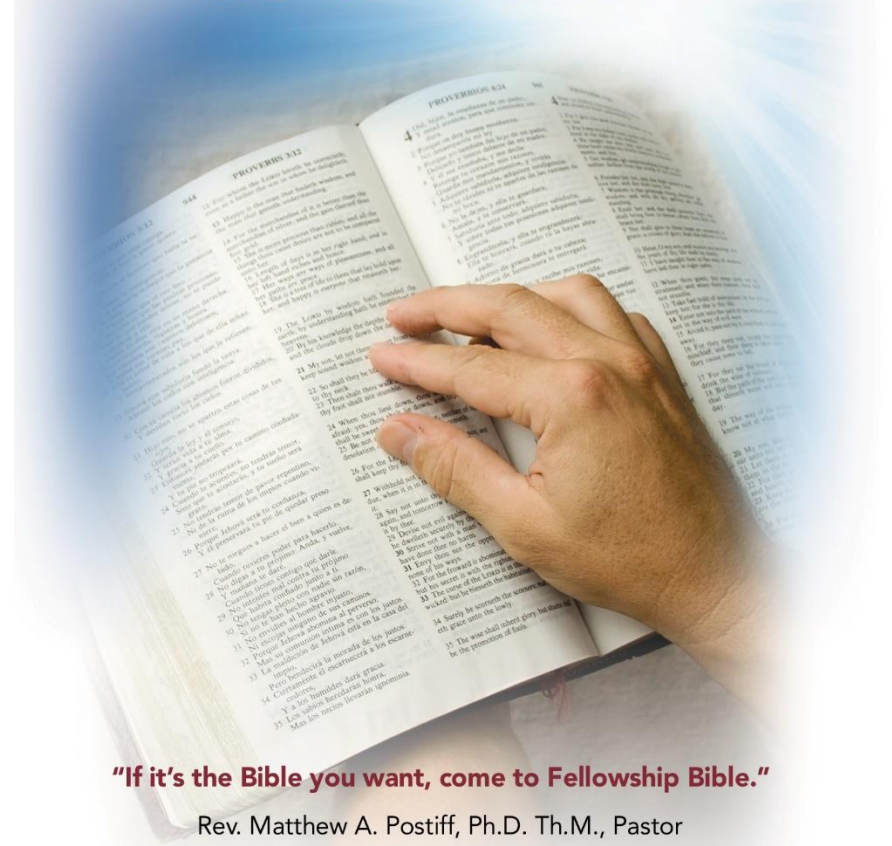

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

DEVOTIONAL READING - Continuation of “Making Decisions By Principle”

Here are the determinations that I listed to help guide me through life:

- Determined to be daily in His Word and before His throne.
- Determined to put my relationship with the Lord above all other relationships—no matter how close they may be.
- Determined to never fear the consequences of truth.
- Determined to always speak the truth in love.
- Determined to not exaggerate the importance of lesser matters.
- Determined to the best of my ability to love my wife as Christ loved the church, and to set an example that my children and my grandchildren can follow.
- Determined to value influence more than opportunities.
- Determined to be led by the Spirit rather than intimidated by man.
- Determined that I have nothing to prove; I have Someone to please.
- Determined that I will not use my Christian liberty as a tool of divisiveness.
- Determined that I will show love to the lost, mercy to the prodigal, forgiveness to the offender, and grace to fellow believers.
- Determined to pray for wisdom enough to hear those who lead, and humility enough to listen to those who follow.
- Determined that my priorities will always be: Jesus, before others, before me.
- Determined to never lessen the importance of the church that Jesus died for.
- Determined to live my life as a giver, yet always remain grateful for what I receive.
- Determined to earnestly seek forgiveness from those that I have wronged, and restoration with those who have wronged me.

- Determined to be more concerned with being a friend than having a friend.
- Determined that I will seek to advance His kingdom rather than my own.
- Determined to not fall prey to hearsay, innuendo, or scuttlebutt, but to be man enough to go to the source.
- Determined that I will not fall victim to either compliments or criticism.
- Determined to find the humor in life, lest I become infected by reality.
- Determined to approach life as a student rather than as a professor.
- Determined to be a good steward of my health, lest my service suffer from my negligence.

Decision-making becomes much more confident when we are guided by our integrity rather than our emotions. Having predetermined your decision to a situation allows you to respond rather than react. Reactionaries are guided by emotions; responder’s by integrity. Reactionaries leave a trail of shattered relationships and wounded people behind them. They don’t intend to hurt anyone, but they do so because they react emotionally to the situation.

I do not profess to have mastered all of these determinations, but I do confess that these are goals that I sincerely desire to embrace on my journey. What are your life determinations? If you have not made your own determinations, this would be a good time to do so. Prayerfully allow the Word of God to direct you, and then determine to stay the course!
