OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Jansen Lorch is assistant pastor.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

From an article by Pastor Tim Rasmussen

Are there cracks forming in your life—cracks that reveal deeper foundational issues? Let us take whatever steps necessary to shore up our foundation and seal up the cracks so that our lives will bring honor and glory to our Lord who saved us. How can we take steps to strengthen the foundation of our lives?

- By acknowledging cracks and sincerely seeking God in repentance: “He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy” (Proverbs 28:13).
- By determining to live according to the Word of God: “Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path” (Psalm 119:105).
- By attending church and exhorting others: “Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching” (Hebrews 10:25).
- By seeking God in prayer: John R. Rice said, “All of our failures are prayer failures.” “Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice” (Psalm 55:17).
- By reading God’s Word daily and committing it to memory: “Thy Word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against Thee” (Psalm 119:11).
- By sharing our testimony with a lost and dying world and pointing them to Jesus Christ: “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise” (Proverbs 11:30).
- By intentionally meditating on God’s standards: “But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night” (Psalm 1:2).
- By guarding our thought life: “Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Corinthians 10:5).

- By loving God with all our heart, mind, soul and strength and loving our neighbor as ourselves: We desperately need a great commitment to the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20) and the Great Commandment (Matthew 22:37-38).

Paul admonished us to build properly, from the ground up: “According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon” (1 Corinthians 3:10).

When we lay a proper foundation and continually build on it, we can look forward to one day hearing Christ say, “Well done, thou good and faithful servant.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME. As we gather in worship today, may the Lord bless you with a fuller understanding of His Word, and growth in grace. Please join us also for worship at 6:00pm.

WEEK OF PRAYER STARTS TOMORROW. We pray together via teleconference Mon, Tues, Thurs, and Fri at 7:00pm. Wednesday we meet at our regular time at church, with (as always) a teleconference available for the prayer portion at 6:30pm. Please see the “Reminder” papers for instructions, or see your email. Please note that calling in does not require you to pray aloud—many join by listening and praying quietly with whoever is leading the prayer.

CHURCH BUSINESS. The church had a meaningful business meeting on Wednesday evening. It is a joy to report that the church agreed to partner with Hector and Paola Garcia in their church-planting work in Zambia. One big part of our reporting in that meeting has to do with finances. If we set building income and expenses aside and focus on your offerings and ministry related expenses, we can say the following. Of the financial offerings you give, about 70% go to support ministry personnel, 25% to the mission field, and 5% to local ministries.

ACCOUNTABILITY. Pastor would like you to fill out a "goal sheet" and drop it into the offering plate today. On it, you would write your name, one or two spiritual goals for yourself in the next year, and one or two you would like to see the church as a whole work on. This is a great accountability tool so that we focus on spiritual growth.

WEDNESDAY/SATURDAY PRAYER/BIBLE STUDY. On Wednesday we offer dinner at 5:45 as a time for fellowship and to be a help to those who come from work. Our prayer/Bible study time starts at 6:30 on Wednesday. On Saturday the men have men’s prayer starting at 8am, also with a time of devotion in the Word. These are valuable opportunities.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- Ladies’ prayer meeting at 7621 Streamwood 11am on February 13. See Kalee for details.
- Little Lights Service. February 18 at 3:30 we are offering a special service for comfort and outreach for those experienced a miscarriage or other loss of a precious child. See fbcaa.org/lights for details.

BIBLE MEMORY VERSE FOR FEBRUARY. “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.” – 2 Corinthians 5:17-18
