OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

SINGSPIRATION HERE AT FBC – 5:00 p.m.

DEVOTIONAL READING – Serious Team Players Philippians 2:1-5

Sport competitions can teach us many principles about our lives as believers.

- 1) Players must show up regardless of how they feel. Being in the mood to compete in a game or go to a practice doesn't matter. Serious players are committed to being part of the team! God's plan for the local body is for believers to gather for teaching, fellowship, prayer, for remembering the Lord's death (Acts 2:42). Those who forsake this assembling together (when they are capable of being there) don't value God's plan and priorities for battle preparedness. No serious member of a sports team would skip practices or consistently show up late or after a game has started!
- 2) Players must be open to correction. A coach observed, “Some players don't want to be coached.” Believers should be willing to acknowledge their faults and learn from them. It is crucial to “despise not...the chastening of the Lord” (Heb. 12:5), to faint not when He rebukes through His Word and through faithful brothers and sisters in Christ.
- 3) Players must have their “heads in the game” and be constantly aware of opponents' every move. Continuous alertness is essential. Believers can rejoice in each small victory—each “goal” or “touchdown” or “basket”—but the battle goes on.
- 4) The most important aspect of a sports team is unity—with each other and with the coach. Believers must put aside petty differences for the furtherance of the Gospel; they must be “likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.” Nothing must “be done through strife or vainglory.” Rather, “in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves” (Phil. 2:2-3). Nothing is more important than each having the mind of their Heavenly Coach (Phil. 2:5) and a oneness with others in this conflict to which believers are called.
