OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

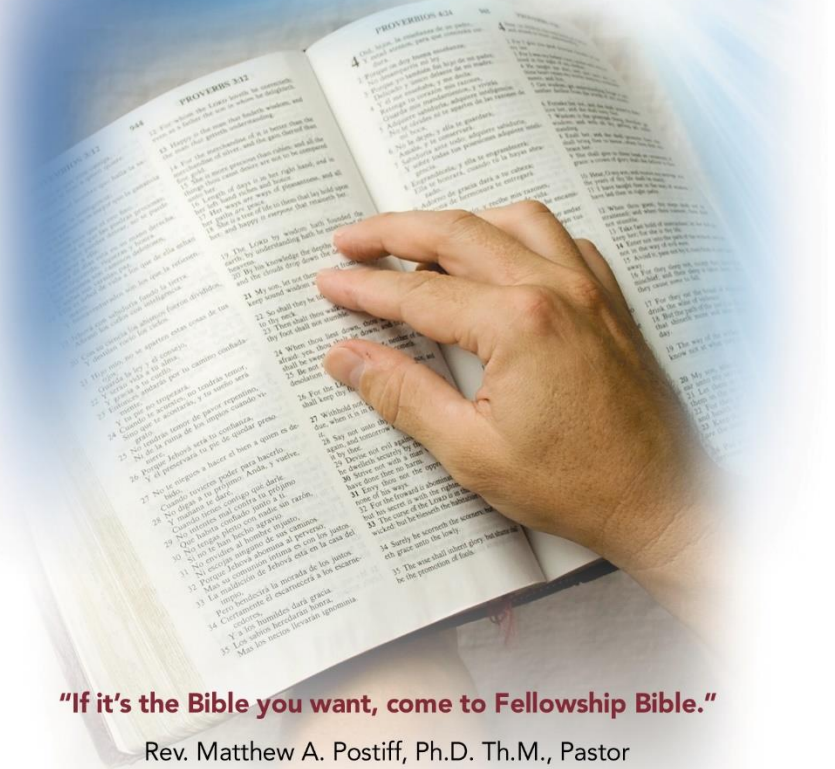

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Jansen Lorch is assistant pastor.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

Scripture is the primary means by which the Holy Spirit cares for our souls, which then becomes the foundation for Word-driven discipleship. Psalm 19 governs our thinking on this matter. The first six verses elevate God as the almighty Creator, of whom all parts of the material creation testify: “The heavens tell of the glory of God; and their expanse declares the work of His hands. Day to day pours forth [silent] speech” (vv. 1-2). The second half of the psalm unwraps the superb gift of Scripture, which suffices to meet every need of the soul.

In Psalm 19:7-13, the songwriter refers to God’s revealed will in Scripture by using six terms: law, testimony, precepts, commandment, fear, and judgments. Alongside these nouns, we notice five active verbs which describe the work that Scripture alone performs inside us: restoring, making wise, rejoicing, enlightening, and enduring. Together, these nouns and verbs, and their surrounding context, highlight the functional purposes of the Bible in the care of souls. Focusing on these functions of Scripture informs our discipleship ministry and builds our confidence in the invisible activity of the Word in the care of souls. Scripture Restores Us to Fullness of Life

The first attribute is foundational to those that follow: “The Law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul” (Psalm 19:7a). The word restoring (also translated converting, as in the NKJV; and reviving, as in the ESV), refers to spiritual regeneration, the gift of the new birth. Psalm 60 employs the word to refer to repentance and conversion.

The Holy Spirit, through Scripture, converts the soul. He makes our inner person alive unto God. This is necessary because, left to us, we remain spiritually dead. Without the Holy Spirit, we remain alive to sin but dead to God. Yet Scripture has the power to change our inner disposition, to breathe life into our soul. Reviving also includes the concept of spiritual restoration.

David uses the word this way in Psalm 23 to draw the picture of a vulnerable, straying sheep returning to safety and care in the pasture of its shepherd. This stunning image of soul care finds its fulfillment in Christ, the “Shepherd and Guardian of [our] souls” (1 Peter 2:25).

Why not take a moment to open your Bible and read all of Psalm 19? Then thank the Lord for the perfection of his Word, which restores your soul to the fullness of life with him.
