OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Jansen Lorch is assistant pastor.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

DEVOTIONAL READING – Seeing with Compassion

And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. – Matthew 9:35-36

One of the distinguishing characteristics of Jesus was the way He viewed people. While the disciples sometimes grew frustrated by the constant throngs of people gathered around the Lord and wanted to get away, Jesus cared about their needs. He saw them—not just glancing at them before moving on to something else—but really looking at them as individuals. Because of the way He looked at them, His heart was filled with compassion. Where others often saw nothing much, Jesus viewed the harvest field of the world and recognized their great need. “Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest” (John 4:35).

When we see the eternal need of people, it should move us to action. The words of pioneer missionary to Africa Robert Moffat lit a fire in the heart of David Livingstone. He said, “Do not sit down in lazy contentment. Do not choose an old station. Push on to the vast, unoccupied districts of the north. In that direction, on a clear morning, I have seen the smoke of a thousand villages. There no missionary has ever been. There, sir, is your field.” Livingstone devoted his entire life, at great personal cost, going to as many of those thousand villages as he could and telling people about Jesus. He suffered sickness, attacks by wild animals, opposition, and slander. But his compassion demanded a response. It is simple to say that we care about people, but when we genuinely do, it will always show up in our actions.

God loves and cares about those around us, and we must do the same.
