OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Jansen Lorch is assistant pastor.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

DEVOTIONAL READING - The Word of God in the Soul of Man

The one true God speaks, and that is how the Bible opens. Immediately following its first words, “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth,” the phrase “God said” occurs eight times (Genesis 1:1-26). Clearly, the Holy Spirit did not want us to miss this point! Psalm 33:9 affirms: “He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood firm.” In contrast to the idols of the nations who do not speak (Psalm 135:15-18), God’s active voice generates life.

God reveals himself to all humanity through nature and our testifying conscience, which He wove into the fabric of man and woman (see Romans 2:15). Through this material revelation, we see God’s “invisible attributes, that is, His eternal power and divine nature” (Romans 1:20). God’s life-giving power displayed in creation is what we call general revelation.

However, God also reveals His nature and attributes in Scripture. We call this special revelation, which we may define as God’s disclosure of His will primarily, and ultimately, through Jesus Christ and His Word (Hebrews 1:1-4). Creation reveals non-salvific attributes of God, whereas Scripture reveals the saving works of God. Another way to say it this: God’s revelation in creation is enough to hold us accountable to our Creator, but it is not enough to save us. For salvation, we need the special revelation of God in the gospel. Steve Lawson explains, “While the sun and the skies above reveal the existence and infinite power of God, Scripture reveals the only way to know God personally.”

The heavens and earth display the creative power of God’s voice in the visible world. But Scripture displays the life-giving power of God’s voice in the immaterial part of man—our souls. His words alone breathe life into our dead spirits and nourish and lead us along the pathway of discipleship until we see our Savior face to face. This connection between the life-giving power of the spoken Word and the written Word is seamless. We see this in Psalm 19, as King David effortlessly moves from one form of revelation to the next. Therefore, John Frame concludes, “Scripture correlates God’s creative word with the written Word of Scripture. As the heavens consistently declare the glory of God (Psalm 19:1), so His law is perfect, restoring the soul (v. 7). As His creative word stands firm in the heavens (Psalm 119:89-90), so His laws endure and stand as our authority.” – by Paul Tautges

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME. We want to extend a heartfelt welcome to you today, and thank you for coming. May you be blessed by your time spent in worship.

BAPTISM. We have the blessing to witness the profession of faith and baptism of two of our young people today. Let’s keep them in prayer and thank the Lord for His work in their lives.

COMMUNION DURING EVENING SERVICE/BIBLE STUDY. We meet back at 6pm for a time of worship and to observe the Lord’s Supper together. Truth Trackers will also meet.

EASTER MUSIC. There is no choir practice today; we will resume next Sunday after the morning worship. Also next week, instrumentalists will begin practice for Easter following the choir rehearsal. Thank you to all our musicians!

PRAYER THIS WEEK. Wednesday prayer meeting/Bible study starts at 6:30 (dinner is also offered at 5:45). On Saturday we have men’s prayer starting at 8am, also with a time of devotion in the Word, right here at the church building. Ben Carnes leads the study on Saturday.
