OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

“As for man, his days are like grass;
 As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

 But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting
 On those who fear Him,
 And His righteousness to children’s children,
 To such as keep His covenant,
 And to those who remember His commandments to do them.” – Psalm 103:15-18

DEVOTIONAL READING – Touch Not; Genesis 3:1-8

The sense of touch is one of God’s good gifts, a gift which allows us to enjoy the kind handshake or embrace of a friend, the softness of a baby’s skin, the warm comfort of a pet’s fur, and other delights. However, touch, wrongly used, can be disastrous.

In lovely Eden, Eve saw that the forbidden fruit was attractive, good to eat, and, according to the tempter, “desired to make one wise.” She stepped away from the sweet simplicity of trusting and obeying God. Instead, she took and ate the prohibited fruit (Genesis 3:6). Eve had to mentally decide to actually touch the fruit before she could eat it. She should have stayed close to God and far away from the forbidden tree.

Are we careful what we touch, how close we get to something that we know is not God’s will? Our curiosity and wrong desire for gratification or knowledge can quickly lead us astray.

I remember a relative, when offered a supply of alcoholic beverages, saying, “I wouldn’t touch that with a ten-foot pole.” Whether we’re drawn to explore questionable doctrine, material items or relationships, if God has spoken we should have a “hands off” mindset.

Why is touching dangerous? “When you touch something, you instantly feel more of a connection to it,” said a marketing professor at UCLA’s Anderson School of Management. “That connection stirs up an emotional reaction — ‘Yeah, I like the feel of it. This can be mine.’ And that emotion can cause you to buy something you never would have bought if you hadn’t touched it.”

We are reminded of 2 Corinthians 6:17, “Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing.” May we desire that “blessing from the LORD” which comes from having “clean hands and a pure heart” (Psalm 24:4a, 5a).
