OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

"That which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us;
and truly our fellowship is with the Father,
and with His Son, Jesus Christ." 1 John 1:3

SUNDAY SCHOOL – 9:45 a.m.

“Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.” – Philippians 4:8,9

DEVOTIONAL READING – A Christian Perspective on 2 Corinthians 5:14-21

1. We must not trust self. “That we should not trust in ourselves but in God” (2 Cor. 1:9). “Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD....Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD” (Jer. 17:5,7). Self will always disappoint you and let you down! We are not sufficient of ourselves (2 Cor. 3:5).
2. We must not promote self. “For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord” (2 Cor. 4:5). The message of our life and lips ought to point to Christ, not to ourselves. We are to promote Him, not self. “He must increase, but I must decrease” (John 3:30).
3. We must not live for self. “He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto Him which died for them, and rose again” (2 Cor. 5:15). Now that I am saved I no longer live for myself, but I live for my Saviour. My slogan used to be, “For to me to live is SELF,” but now, “For to me to live is CHRIST” (Phil. 1:21). We must learn to say “NO” to self and “YES” to Christ: “If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me” (Luke 9:23).
4. We must not please self. “We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves” (Rom. 15:1). Our focus was once on pleasing self, but now it is on pleasing God (Gal. 1:10), and helping and edifying others (Rom. 15:2). If we must focus at all on self, then let us focus on cleansing ourselves (2 Cor. 7:1), judging ourselves (1 Cor. 11:31), and being a vessel fit for the Master’s use (2 Tim. 2:21).
