OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Jansen Lorch ministers as pastoral intern.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

DEVOTIONAL READING - Imitating Women of God

Who can find a virtuous woman? Such a woman is a rare gem indeed! Thankfully, on the pages of the Holy Bible we can find numerous illustrations of godly women whose example we can follow and whose faith we can imitate. May we be...

(1) like Sarah, who judged Him faithful who had promised: By faith Sarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and she bore a child when she was past the age, because she judged Him faithful who had promised (Hebrews 11:11).

(2) like the Hebrew midwives, who feared God more than they feared the wrath of Pharaoh: But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them but saved the male children alive (Exodus 1:17).

(3) like Rahab, who feared God and by faith protected the spies at the risk of her own life: Likewise, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way (James 2:25)?

(4) like Ruth, who left her homeland, her family, and her gods in order to follow her mother-in-law Naomi and her God: But Ruth said: “Entreat me not to leave you, or to turn back from following after you; for wherever you go, I will go; and wherever you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God, my God” (Ruth 1:16).

(5) like Abigail, the peacemaker, who through soft persuasion prevented David from executing folly: Then David said to Abigail: “Blessed is the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me! (33) And blessed is your advice and blessed are you, because you have kept me this day from coming to bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand” (1 Samuel 25:32-33).

(6) like Mary, the wife of Joseph, mother of Jesus, who knew the Scriptures well, and alluded to them repeatedly as she magnified the Lord; and who made it clear that we should not follow men's traditions but only do what Jesus says: And Mary said: “My soul magnifies the Lord, (47) and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior. (48) For He has regarded the lowly state of His maidservant; for behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed (Luke 1:46-48). His mother said to the servants, “Whatever He says to you, do it” (John 2:5).

(7) like Anna, who served God with prayers night and day: And this woman was a widow of about eighty-four years, who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day (Luke 2:37).

(8) like Mary, the sister of Martha, who chose to sit at Jesus' feet and hear His word: And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet and heard His word.... But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her (Luke 10:39, 42).

(9) like Dorcas, who was full of good works and concern for the needy: At Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and charitable deeds which she did (Acts 9:36). To Be Continued

REPORT FROM LADIES' MEETING. Praise God for the uplifting time of fellowship He provided through the Ladies Brunch yesterday! Our speaker gave an encouraging devotional that challenged us to consider and utilize the truths of God's Word in the words we speak to others and to ourselves, knowing that true joy and lasting peace are only given by God. We are thankful for all those who helped, brought the delicious foods and attended. It was a delight to gather as sisters in Christ!
