OUR BELIEFS

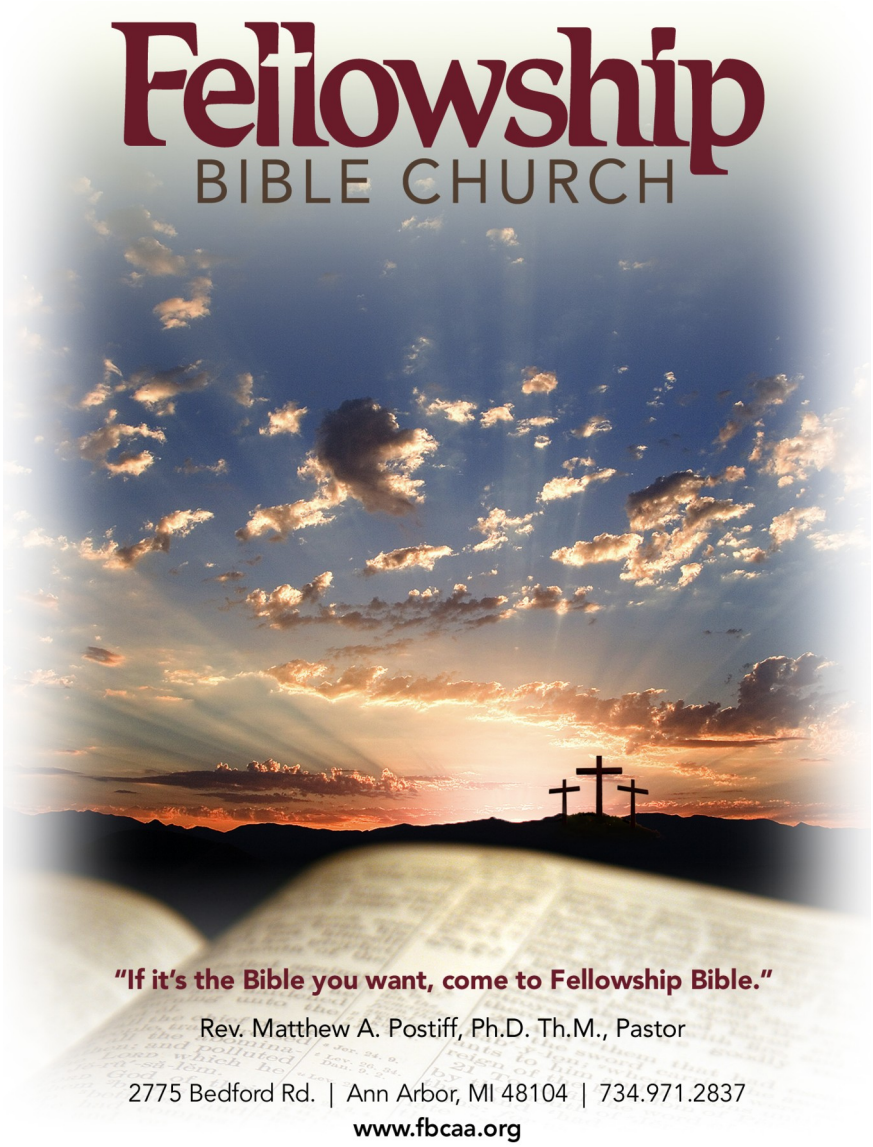

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Pastor Jansen Lorch is assistant pastor and missionary appointee to Chile.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

"That which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son, Jesus Christ." 1 John 1:3

DEVOTIONAL READING

Rooted in the Right Place: Biblical Discipleship in a Therapeutic Age
by Pastor Paul Tautges (part 3 of 3)

Jerry Bridges wisely wrote, "Trusting God is not a matter of my feelings but of my will." That distinction is critical. If we build our lives on fluctuating emotions, we will constantly be unstable. True stability comes from anchoring ourselves in the unchanging character of God.

This is one reason biblical discipleship is so urgently needed today. Many people know how to express feelings but do not know how to interpret those feelings biblically. They know how to seek validation but not repentance. They know how to protect self but not how to die to self. Only God's Word can accurately diagnose the human heart.

Jeremiah also forces us to ask an uncomfortable but revealing question: Where do we run when life becomes hard? Trials expose our refuges. For some, the refuge is entertainment or endless scrolling. For others, it is food, shopping, work, …, busyness, or emotional withdrawal. We all instinctively search for something to quiet fear, shame, sorrow, or anxiety. These refuges are broken cisterns. They cannot hold water. Jeremiah points us instead to the only secure refuge: "You are my refuge in the day of disaster" (Jer. 17:17).

The Christian life is not merely about affirming correct doctrine. It is about learning where to run when the heat comes. Faith trains the heart to flee to the Lord rather than inward toward self-salvation.

This is what our families, churches, and counseling ministries must continually reinforce. People do not merely need coping mechanisms; they need Christ. They need to know that when shame overwhelms them, when suffering confuses them, when fear grips them, the Lord Himself is their refuge.

In this therapeutic age, discipleship is about training the reflexes of trust. Every day, people are being discipled by something—social media, entertainment, peer pressure, political ideologies, or self-help philosophies. The question is not whether discipleship is happening. The question is: Into what are people being discipled?

Jeremiah 17 sets two paths before us. One produces shrubs in the desert—people rooted in self, blown about by emotions and cultural trends. The other produces trees planted by streams of water—people rooted in the Lord, bearing fruit even in seasons of hardship. ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME. We are blessed to gather in worship today and pray you will be strengthened in the faith. We are also thankful that Pastor Lorch is providing the Bible teaching this morning.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM REHEARSALS TODAY. Rehearsals continue today, with choir meeting after the morning worship followed by the instrumental ensemble. Thank you!

EVENING SERVICE. We'll close out this Lord's Day with our evening service starting at 6pm. Our Truth Trackers program will also meet.

MEETINGS THIS WEEK. Our weekly time of prayer is on Wednesday, starting at 6:30pm, followed by Bible study at 7:30. Men also meet for Bible study and prayer on Saturday at 8:00am.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE & POTLUCK. Next Sunday, November 22 is our Thanksgiving potluck where we can share together in praise to God as a church family. We'll start the meal about 20 minutes after service that day, giving time for Christmas rehearsals to finish. Please plan to stay and participate.

PRAISING THE LORD. This past week the Lorches reached 100% support! Another blessing from the week was the Young adult fellowship on Friday night, where we welcomed 13 folks from FBC and a couple sister churches for food, fellowship, devotional, and games. Maybe you have a praise you would share with someone at church today as an encouragement that God is at work in your life or the lives of others.

NOVEMBER VERSES OF THE MONTH. Please learn John 14:5-6: Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."

OTHER UPCOMING EVENTS

- November 29 is a Singspiration at Hiawatha at 5:00pm. We bring desserts!
- Saturday, December 12 is the rehearsal for the Christmas Concert in the morning.
- December 13 at 3:30pm is our annual Christmas Concert Outreach. Printed invitations are available for you to use to invite friends!
- January 3, 2027 Special services and potluck; language-school send-off for the Lorches.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT. Church should be the reason you miss everything else. Not everything else the reason you miss church.

PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER. Please take some time to pray for a brother or sister whom you have not seen lately, or one who is not feeling well. Keep each other in your hearts.
