OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Jansen Lorch is assistant pastor.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

DEVOTIONAL READING - Grounded and Gazing Psalm 61

“Oft upon the Rock I tremble, faint of heart and weak of knee.
But the solid ‘Rock of Ages’ never trembles under me”
(Author Unknown).

We are inspired by those of old who chose to stand steadfast on that Rock, no matter the darkness of their earthly circumstances, and to gaze steadily upon the Lord. Abraham’s stability was his God as he “went out, not knowing whither he went” and “looked for a city whose builder and maker was God” (Hebrews 11:8,10). Joseph, far from home and family, determined that regardless of his difficult trials, he would not sin against God (Genesis 39:9). Ruth was “steadfastly minded” (Ruth 1:8) that she would follow Naomi into the unknown: “thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.”

For most of his life, King David gazed at God instead of at his circumstances. He purposed to make God the central focus of his life, which made all the difference. He affirmed, “The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust” (Psalm 18:2). His cry to the Lord was “From the end of the earth will I cry unto Thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I” (Psalm 61:2). Daniel, who was a young captive away from his home and country and culture, “purposed in his heart” that he would do what was right (Daniel 1:8).

Making the choice to gaze at God and glance at our circumstances (rather than gazing at our circumstances and glancing at God) and to stand upon the solid Rock of Ages gives us a wonderful, peaceful, calmness of mind and heart. By God’s grace, in these darkening days may our feet be firmly planted, and may our eyes be ever upward beholding the beauty of the LORD (Psalm 27:4).
