OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

DEVOTIONAL READING – Be Not Weary Galatians 6:1-10

C.I. Scofield (1843-1921) spent some thirty years of detailed research and hard work writing the Scofield Reference Bible. He later observed that his biographer, Charles Trumbull, “started in with the word ‘amazing’ as characterizing a life which seems to me chiefly one of drudgery, but now I am ‘amazed’ to see how skillfully he makes my very drudgery interesting.”

Certainly “drudgery” is part of any great accomplishment. Noah must have experienced days of boring labor and toil as he spent 120 years building the ark. We think of Moses and the 40 years tending sheep in a lonely desert, of Abraham’s long sojourns, and of all the Lord Jesus endured as He fulfilled His Father’s will.

Hard work is God’s plan. Even in a perfect world, He put Adam into the Garden of Eden “to dress it and to keep it” (Gen. 2:15). God told Zerubbabel and others in the difficult task of rebuilding the temple, to “be strong. . . be strong. . . be strong. . . and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts” (Haggai 2:4).

Even when our labors seem wearisome, we are admonished to be “stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord”—knowing that “our labour is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Cor. 15:58). “And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not” (Gal. 6:9).

We can joyfully commit our works unto the LORD (Prov. 16:3) remembering the promise that “God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward His name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister” (Hebrews 6:10). May “the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us” and may He establish the “work of our hands” (Ps. 90:17).

- Outside of the will of God there can be no true success; in the will of God there can be no failure.
- Those who are lost have only themselves to blame; those who are saved have only God to thank.
