OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

DEVOTIONAL READING – NO MORE SPIES!
(Numbers 13:26-33)

Is my future a heavy weight for me to bear, or a peaceful anticipation? A lady facing a terminal illness shared how the Lord spoke to her through the account of the twelve spies being sent to search out the land of Canaan. She said, “I found I was sending out spies into the future and they always brought back an evil report. So, I have decided NO MORE SPIES! We are just going to live one day at a time fully trusting God.” We can easily panic at dire future possibilities that our “thought-spies” bring back. Instead of spies, let us send out God’s promises when anxieties about the future enter our minds.

Perhaps we could have a promise in readiness for each apprehension. Examples might be: Natural disaster terrors—Psalm 46:1-3, “God is...a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea...” Persecution concerns—Matt. 5:10, “Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness’ sake.” Relationship worries—John 16:32, “Ye...shall leave Me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.” Heb. 13:5, “He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.” Financial concerns—Phil. 4:19, “But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory.” Health distresses—2 Cor. 4:17, “For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory”; Old age and death worries—Isa. 46:4, “And even to your old age I am He; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.”

How wonderful to be confident and childlike in trusting our Heavenly Father and His precious promises.

- MORE FOOD FOR THOUGHT.
- "I have read in Plato and Cicero sayings that are wise and beautiful, but I never read in either of them, 'Come unto Me, and I will give you rest.'" (Augustine)
- If the Lord had intended men to live in a permissive society, wouldn't the Ten Commandments have been the Ten Suggestions?

Recently reading about the resurrection of Christ, I saw someone suggested this idea: perhaps it is as normal for a sinless man to rise from the dead as it is for a sinful man to stay dead. In other words, we should not be too surprised that Jesus rose from the grave!

Live this day well; tomorrow's strength and grace will come tomorrow (Matt. 6:24).
