OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

DEVOTIONAL READING

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace. - Philippians 1:3-7

God does not do anything halfway. What He begins, He finishes. What He plans, He completes. We can have full confidence in the future, because it is God who has promised to accomplish what He has said. Charles Spurgeon wrote, “When [the Israelites] were in Egypt he sent not only a deliverer, but an actual deliverance; not only a redeemer, but complete redemption. He has done the like spiritually for all his people, having first by blood purchased them out of the hand of the enemy, and then by power rescued them from the bondage of their sins. Redemption we can sing of as an accomplished act: it has been wrought for us, sent to us, and enjoyed by us, and we are in very deed the Lord’s redeemed.”

The path that we started on when we accepted Christ as Savior does not always run smooth and straight. Many times there are troubles, hardships, tears, and frustrations. Many times we fail to do what we should and instead do what we should not. But just as we did not save ourselves, we do not keep ourselves—God does that. He knows what we will do long before it ever happens. He knows the obstacles, temptations, and struggles we will face. He continues to love and care for us, and He will keep us safe in Him until the day we see Him face to face.

We need never fear that God will abandon us or fail to accomplish all He has planned for our lives.

MORE FOOD FOR THOUGHT

One cannot be saved by imperfect obedience because God cannot accept it. The only solution is Calvary.

The doctrine of grace humbles man without degrading him and exalts him without inflating him.

God has two thrones: one in the highest heaven and the other in the lowliest heart (see Isaiah 57:15 and 66:1-2).
