Tenderness and compassion are found in Christ. The Gospel of Luke provides an example when it tells us of a time when Jesus came into the town of Nain. “As he drew near to the gate of the town, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a considerable crowd from the town was her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, ‘Do not weep.’”

If pride, anger, and hatred produce conflict [and they do,] then what it needed is humility and love. Consequently, Ephesians 4:1-3 compels us to walk in a manner worthy of the calling of God in Christ, which includes all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Without humility and love, it is impossible to know the bond of peace. Let me illustrate.

When I want to repair something that is broken, I often go to the hardware store to buy 2-part epoxy. The two resins do nothing when they remain separate, but when you snip the tip of the dispenser and mix the chemical agents you have a glue that quickly cures and forms a permanent bond. Like that 2-part epoxy, which produces an unbreakable bond, so humility and love combine to form a unity that cannot be easily destroyed. Divisions among believers thrive in an environment where spiritual pride is rampant and love is absent. Therefore, God repeatedly calls us to a life of humility and love, which maintains biblical unity. One such call is found in Philippians 2:1-2. So “if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.”

In Ephesians 4:1, the apostle’s logic is this: If you have experienced the riches that come with the experience of knowing Christ as Lord and Savior then there is a certain kind of conduct that is now expected from you. That conduct is marked by love and humility.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME. We are so thankful for this Lord’s Day and the opportunity to worship our great God. We hope you are encouraged and blessed by your participation in fellowship, Bible study, and worship.

EVENING SERVICE. Please join us at 6:00pm tonight for more worship and fellowship. Truth Trackers Club will also meet and will receive new books tonight!

OPPORTUNITY FOR TEENS. Tuesday at 6:00pm, Mr. and Mrs. Lorch are hosting any teens (grades 7-12) who are able to meet up for some pizza and to meet representatives from Appalachian Bible College, to learn more about a Bible college experience. Weather permitting, it will be held outdoors at their home. Please rsvp to the Lorches today.

WEDNESDAY PRAYER MEETING. There is a great need for prayer, and our opportunity to do so corporately is Wednesday at 6:30pm. If you would like to call in to join us, you are welcome to do so. Even better, come and participate in person. However you can, make prayer with believers a priority.

MEN’S PRAYER FELLOWSHIP. Men meet for fellowship, prayer and Bible study Saturday mornings at 8:00 a.m. Dwayne Reid is scheduled to host next Saturday.

OTHER UPCOMING EVENTS.

- Saturday, September 26 is a remote Hackathon 8! We have some exciting new projects to work on; if you are planning to participate, please let Pastor know.
- October 4, Lord’s Table in the evening service at 6pm.
