OUR BELIEFS

1. We believe the 66-book Bible is verbally inspired and inerrant in the original writings. We believe that the Bible must be interpreted literally, according to context, history, and grammar. We believe the dispensational approach to the Bible.
2. We believe there is one only living and true God, eternally existing in three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe that man was created in the image of God, but he sinned, and thereby all human beings are born with a sin nature which is at enmity with God. Man therefore needs to be reconciled to God, released from slavery to sin, and delivered from God's wrath against sin and the guilt of sin.
4. We believe in Christ's virgin birth, physical bodily resurrection, ascension, and present intercession for us.
5. We believe that Jesus Christ died in our place at Calvary and that His sacrifice is the only ground for forgiveness of sin.
6. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and that all who so believe are eternally saved, transformed, and being sanctified.
7. We believe in the imminent, pretribulational rapture of the church. We believe in the personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus to the earth to set up His Kingdom.

OUR STAFF

Ben Carnes and Jon Snoeberger are the deacons of Fellowship Bible Church. Jansen Lorch is assistant pastor.

OUR INVITATION

We invite you to receive Jesus as your Lord and Savior, join the church membership, grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and consider how you can serve to promote the gospel to the ends of the earth. Please see Pastor Postiff or one of the deacons if you have spiritual needs or questions. We are happy to serve you in whatever way we can.

DEVOTIONAL READING

One thing have I desired of the LORD. Psalm 27:4
 One thing I know. John 9:25
 One thing I do. Philippians 3:13

In today's multi-tasking world, there is a danger that we can lose our focus. We get busy doing so many things, that we run the risk of becoming a “Jack of all trades, but master of none”. For many Christians, the concern is not that they will doubt their faith, but that they will be distracted from their faith. May we learn to be single-minded Christians! —L. Shatford, Choice Gleanings 2/2/2007

“Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.” – Philippians 2:5

“I must be about my Father's business” – Luke 2:49.

“My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work.” – John 4:34 That one object brought Jesus from heaven — that one object He pursued with unflinching, undeviating constancy, until He could say, "It is finished!"

However short man comes of his 'chief end' — bringing glory to God was the motive, the rule, and exponent of every act of Christ's wondrous life... Reader! do you feel that in some feeble measure, this lofty life-motto of the sinless Son of God — is written on your home and heart, regulating your actions, chastening your joys, quickening your hopes, giving energy and direction to your whole being, subordinating all the affections of your nature to their high destiny? With pure and unalloyed motives, with a single eye, and a single aim — can you say, somewhat in the spirit of His brightest follower, "This one thing I do!" Are you ready to regard all you have — rank, name, talents, riches, influence, distinctions — as valuable, only so far as they contribute to promote the glory of Him who is "first and last, and all in all?" Seek to feel that your heavenly Father's glory is the main business of life. – J. MacDuff (1870)
